- Pray the following:

Let perpetual light shine upon them, with your Saints forever, for you are merciful.
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them, with your Saints forever, for you are merciful.

All Saints Day, 1st November
Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints.

Annual Mass for Frank Duff founder of The Legion of Mary will be broadcast from the Pro Cathedral at 12.00 noon on Saturday, 7th November, main celebrant Bishop Eamonn Walsh. After this Mass, the Act of Consecration to Our Lady which Legionaires were not able to make at the Acies this year will be made.

Norms for Indulgences at the Commemoration of All Souls:

From 12 noon on 1 Nov until midnight on 2 Nov all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostle's Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1 Nov. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1 to 8 Nov.

The Faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1 to 8 Nov. The conditions above apply also for this.

What are Indulgences?
Indulgences are the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven. The faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains the indulgence under prescribed conditions for either themselves or the departed. Indulgences are granted through the ministry of the Church which as the dispenser of the grace of redemption, distributes the treasury of the merits of Christ and the Saints.
