Fifth Sunday of Lent

Reflecting on the Gospel Reading
John 12:20-33

Today's Gospel reading is taken from the Gospel of John. We are reading much further into John's Gospel than we have for the past two weeks. Chapter 12 of John's Gospel is a preparation for the beginning of the passion narrative to follow

The final section of today's Gospel might be read as John's parallel to the agony in the garden. Unlike the Synoptic Gospels, the Gospel of John does not record Jesus' anguished prayer in the garden of Gethsemane before his arrest. Although comparable words are found in today's reading, Jesus gives a confident response to the question he raises when asking God to save him from his impending death. After announcing his conviction that it is for this purpose that he came, a voice from heaven speaks, as if in answer to Jesus' prayer. This voice, like the one heard at Jesus' baptism and at Jesus' Transfiguration—events reported in the Synoptic Gospels but not in John's Gospel—affirms that God welcomes the sacrifice that Jesus will make on behalf of others. In John's Gospel, Jesus teaches that this voice was sent for the sake of those who would believe in him.

The prayer Fr David prays each Wednesday to conclude:
Prayer of St Augustine
 Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give Your angels and saints charge over those who sleep.
 Tend Your sick ones, O Lord.
 Rest Your weary ones.
 Bless Your dying ones.
 Soothe Your suffering ones.
 Pity Your afflicted ones.
 Shield Your joyous ones, and all for Your love's sake. Amen.

With Sympathy

Our prayers and sympathy are offered to the family and friends of
 Fr. David's aunt Tess Brown,
 Churchtown, Dublin
 May she rest in peace.

With Gratitude & Prayers

Thank you for the continued support and prayers for all our sick. Those at home, in hospital, in nursing homes. We continue to remember Fr Pádraig and all our loved ones and ask for their healing and God's grace and strength for their families and all who look after them at this time.

Welcome Back!

Please remember in your prayers all our young people, their families and the entire school community as they return to the school building.

A lot feels very different this year for all involved, we pray that they may feel safe, secure and protected in God's loving embrace.
