Welcome to Our New Archbishop
 "Rather than being focused short-sightedly on the glory of the past, and the magnificent institutions which our sisters and brothers before us built – old wineskins, to use the Lord's phrase – we need to accept the responsibility of mission as we experience it now. It is how we embrace this mission that is going to make the difference. We can only do this together. Walking together is the way of community."

 We welcome and hold in prayer our new Archbishop Dr. Dermot Farrell, who began his ministry among us last Tuesday.

Thank you for joining us via webcam or radio at this time. We eagerly await an easing of restrictions to allow us to worship together in church safely.
 You can contribute your donation by pressing the donate button on the parish web page or by dropping your donation into the shrine box in church.
