Archbishop Edward Byrne

Special Mass on Sunday 28th August at 11.30am.

Edward Byrne was Archbishop of Dublin from 1921-1940. He was the son of a tenant farmer From Kilahurler and a member of the famous Wicklow O' Byrne clan.

Commencing his role as Archbishop of Dublin in 1921, Edward made an immense contribution to the newly formed Irish state. The government of the day had no money for education, health or social care. In his position as Archbishop, Edward used church funding to support the cash strapped state by; Funding the establishment of schools in all parishes in his diocese, He fostered the establishment of health clinics throughout the diocese.

He was responsible for the expansion of Dublin's public hospitals including the National Children's hospital in Crumlin and the establishment of St Vincent's in Elm Park.

In an era, which was without social welfare support Archbishop Byrne was a staunch advocate of organisations like St Vincent De Paul and the Legion of Mary in their charitable works for Dublin's poor and homeless.

Sunday 28th August

Monsignor Ciarán O'Carroll will celebrate Mass at 11.30am in St Mary & Peter's to Celebrate Archbishop Edward Byrne's Centenary Mass.

Parish of Sts. Mary & Peter, Arklow with St. David's, Johnstown

Sunday 21st August 2022

In this feast, particularly cherished by the Popes of modern times, we celebrate Mary as the Queen of Heaven and Earth. Pope Pius XII in the Papal Encyclical Ad Coeli Reginam proposed the traditional doctrine on the Queenship of Mary and established this feast for the Universal Church.

Pope Pius IX said of Mary's queenship: "Turning her maternal Heart toward us and dealing with the affair of our salvation, she is concerned with the whole human race. Constituted by the Lord Queen of Heaven and earth, and exalted above all choirs of Angels and the ranks of Saints in Heaven, standing at the right hand of Her only-begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, she petitions most powerfully with Her maternal prayers, and she obtains what she seeks."

And Pope Pius XII added the following: "We commend that on the festival there be renewed the consecration of the human race to the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Upon this there is founded a great hope that there will rejoice in the triumph of religion and in Christian peace..."

...Therefore, let all approach with greater confidence now than before, to the throne of mercy and grace of our Queen and Mother to beg help in difficulty, light in darkness and solace in trouble and sorrow...

. . . Whoever, therefore, honours the lady ruler of the Angels and of men - and let no one think themselves exempt from the payment of that tribute of a grateful and loving soul - let them call upon her as most truly Queen and as the Queen who brings the blessings of peace, that She may show us all, after this exile, Jesus, who will be our enduring peace and joy."

Entrance Hymn

Holy God, We Praise Your Name
 Holy God, we praise thy Name!
 Lord of all, we bow before thee;
 All on earth thy sceptre claim,
 All in heaven above adore thee;
 Infinite thy vast domain,
 Everlasting is thy reign.

Hark! with loud peeling hymn
Thee, The Angel choirs above are raising;
Cherubim and Seraphim
One unceasing chorus praising,
Ever sing sweet accord:
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three we name thee,
While in essence only One,
Undivided God we claim thee,
And adoring bend the knee,
While we own the mystery.

Recessional Hymn

As I Kneel Before You,
As I Bow My Head In Prayer,
Take This Day, Make It Yours
And Fill Me With Your Love.

Ave Maria, Gratia Plena,
Dominus Tecum, Benedicta Tu.

All I Have I Give You,
Every Dream and Wish Are Yours,
Mother of Christ, Mother Of Mine,
Present Them To My Lord.

Ave Maria, Gratia Plena,
Dominus Tecum, Benedicta Tu.

As I Kneel Before You,
And I See Your Smiling Face
Every Thought, Every Word
Is Lost in Your Embrace.
