with St. David's, Johnstown
Sunday 23rd October 2022
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recessional Hymn

Queen of the May

Bring flowers of the rarest, bring blossoms the fairest, from garden and woodland and hillside and dale. Our full hearts are swelling, our glad voices telling the praise of the loveliest flower of the vale.

O Mary we crown thee with blossom today

Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May.

O Mary, we crown thee with blossoms today

Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May.

Their lady they name thee,

Their mistress proclaim thee,

Ah, great that thy children on earth be as true as long as the bowers are radiant with flowers, as long as the azure shall keep its bright hue

Entrance Hymn

Hail, Queen of Heav'n, the ocean star
Guide of the wand'rer here below:
Thrown on life's sure, we claim thy care:

Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, star of the sea,
Pray for the wand'rer pray for me.

O gentle, chaste, and spotless maid
We sinners make our prayers through thee:

Remind thy Son that he has paid
The price of our iniquity.

Virgin most pure, star of the sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY – THIS WEEKEND

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It always falls on the second last Sunday in October, meaning this year it will be celebrated over the weekend this Sunday, October 23, and is co-ordinated in Ireland by Missio Ireland.

All offerings made on behalf of World Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This fund supports missionary activities in over 1,100 young dioceses, mostly in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. As young dioceses grow, so do their needs. On top of this, they are often found in remote areas devastated by conflict or natural disasters. The Universal Solidarity Fund provides aid so that missionaries can continue to go to these places to share the love of God. Please Support.

Never give up
on the people you love.
Never give up
from being happy.

BECAUSE LIFE IS AN INCREDIBLE SHOW.

- Pope Francis

If you wish to include an Anniversary Mass or notice in the Parish Newsletter it must be left in the Parish Office on the Wednesday before 10am to appear in the weekend Newsletter. Thank you.

Thousand white handkerchiefs shaped into roses fan out from the Iveagh Gardens' fountain, forming a traditional Irish lace pattern.

The roses are part of Lost Lace, an art installation commemorating those who died of Covid-19 in the Republic and Northern Ireland. Each rose symbolises one lost life.

The project, which launched Saturday in Iveagh Gardens, is a collaboration between the visual artist Miriam McConnon and the poet Jessica Traynor.

Ms McConnon chose the handkerchief to represent the traditional small cloths (clouties) tied around trees near holy wells thought to drive away illness. A single white rose, often considered a symbol of devotion, was selected to represent each life.

Wicklow County Council confirmed that the L-6902 St. Mary's Road will be closed from 24th October to the 4th November 2022 inclusive. The reason for the closure is to facilitate road carriageway reconstruction.
